KIMBERLY FULLERTON

Head of English Course Graders
TCLAS Department of English

Dear Kimberly Fullerton,

My name is Kaitlyn Johnson, and I am applying for the position of Course Grader in the TCLAS Department of English. This position was recommended to me through the ASU portal as I begin my graduate program in English Rhetoric at Arizona State University. I believe I am an asset to ASU's course graders because of my previous experience in proofreading across multiple style guides, extensive teaching experience, and professional editing experiences.

Throughout my undergraduate degree, I have had the opportunity to take classes in advanced literary critical theory, professional writing, editing, and rhetoric. As part of those classes, I was able to help edit several manuscripts for professors at Brigham Young University - Idaho, proofread over 50 papers biweekly, create and run social media campaigns for a local non-profit, and worked extensively across the Canvas suite in a student and teacher capacity.

These experiences have given me the capacity to work in editing in multiple different mediums and for differing audiences. I developed the ability to not only complete group projects well and effectively but also lead out in solo projects. I am confident that I can bring these skills into my work as a course grader as well.

Thank you for the opportunity to apply. I look forward to hearing from you and setting up an interview.

Sincerely,

Kaitlyn Johnson
